

The Dutch in the Medway, 1667:
Anglo-Dutch rivalry in its global context

Friday 30 June and Saturday 1 July 2017
Royal Dockyard Church, The Historic Dockyard, Chatham

Friday 30 June

- 17.00-18.00 Registration
18.00 Open Lecture:
Jeroen van der Vliet (Rijksmuseum), The Anglo-Dutch Wars: naval archaeology, material culture and visual arts, (Chair, Richard Holdsworth)
19.30 Reception

Saturday 1 July

- 9.00-9.30 Registration
9.30-10.45 Paul Seaward, The Second Anglo-Dutch War, the Raid on Medway, the Peace of Breda
Chris Ware, The English Response to the Raid on the Medway
Elizabeth Edwards, The political significance of the War for the Dutch, 1667-1672
- 10.45-11.15 COFFEE
- 11.15-12.15 Gijs Rommelse, The Anglo-Dutch Wars in a European and global context.
Pepijn Brandon, The English and Dutch Fiscal-Naval States
- 12.30-13.15 LUNCH
- 13.15-14.00 Richard Holdsworth and Jeroen van der Vliet: Guided Exhibition Tour
14.15-15.00 Nuala Zahedieh, The Navigation Acts, Slavery and the 'Atlantic System'.
15.00-15.45 Martine van Ittersum, International Law and Anglo-Dutch rivalry in the North Sea and the Atlantic.
- 15.45-16.15 TEA
- 16.15-17.00 David Ormrod and Richard Holdsworth: Historical Commemorations: 1973, 1988 and 2017
17.00-17.30+ Round table discussion
- 18.00 onwards DRINKS AND BARBECUE