

Contents

Abstract	2
Declaration	3
Dedication	4
Translation Table	5
Acknowledgments	6
1 Introduction	9
1.1 - Book Review on the Muslim Minority Law	22
2 Methodology	31
2.1 – Aims and Objectives of the Study	33
2.2 – Research Methodology	34
2.3 – Research Methods	36
2.3.1 – Assembling Secondary Data: Review of Literature	36
2.3.2 – Assembling Primary Data: Review of Documents	37
2.3.3 – Data Analysis Methods	38
2.4 – Limitations and Difficulties	39
3 The Concepts of Minority and Muslim Minority	41
3.1 – Definition of Minority	41
3.1.2 – Muslim	61
3.1.3 – Muslim Minority	65
3.2 – Muslim Minorities of the World at a Glance	68
4 Muslims in Britain – Past and Present: Historical and Social Background	71
4.1 –Introduction	71
4.1.1 – Muslims in Britain since 8 th C to 17 th C as Visitors and Sojourns	87
4.1.2 – Muslims in Britain since 18 th C to Second World War as Migrants and Settlers	100
4.1.3 – Muslims in Britain from being Settlers to Institutions	125

Contents

4.1.3.1 – Abdullah Quilliam (1856-1932) as Sheikh-al-Islam and the Founder of the Liverpool Mosque and Institute	136
4.1.3.2 – Abdullah Quilliam as ‘Sheik al-Islam’	137
4.1.3.3 – Abdullah Quilliam as the Founder of Liverpool Mosque and Institute	141
4.1.4 – Dr. G. W Leitner – Woking Mosque	143
4.1.5 – Central London Mosque	148
4.1.6 – Sheikh Abdullah Ali al-Hakimi and Alawi Tariqa	152
5 Problems of Contemporary Muslim Minorities in Britain	177
5.1 – Are there problems for contemporary Muslims in Britain?	180
5.2 - Problems of Contemporary Muslims in Britain	197
5.3 - Contemporary Muslims in Britain and Problems Related to Identity	199
5.3.1 - Muslims Being Seen as ‘Other’	200
5.3.2 - Permissibility for the Presence of Muslims in Non-Muslim Society	207
5.3.3 - Issue of Headscarf (hijāb) and Muslim Woman in Britain	214
5.3.3.1 - The Begum Case: Background	220
5.3.3.2 - The Begum Case and Freedom of Religion	221
5.3.3.3 - The Begum Case and Right to Education	226
6 Fiqh al-Aqalliyāt (Jurisprudence for Muslim Minorities)	232
6.1 – Definition, Concepts and the Status of Fiqh al-Aqalliyāt - Past and Present	232
6.2 – Fiqh al-Aqalliyāt – Past and Present	237
6.3 – Concept and of Dār in the pre-Modern Period	241
6.3.1 – Definition of Dār	241

Contents

6.3.2 - Dār al-Islam and Dār al-Harb	243
6.3.3 – Contemporary Opinions on the Definition of Dār al-Islam and Dār al-Harb	270
6.3.4 – The Concept of Dār and its Relevance in Today's Muslim Minority Context - Faisal Mowlavi	274
6.4 – Seeking Fiqh al-Aqalliyāt to Address the Problems of Muslim Minorities	281
6.5 – The Nature and the Scope of Fiqh al-Aqalliyāt	282
6.6 – The Scope of Fiqh al-Aqalliyāt	284
6.6.1 – The Sub-Rulings of Fundamentals of Islam	284
6.6.2 – Sub-Rulings of Islamic Provisions (Al-ahkām al-Islamiyyah)	284
6.7 – The Ways and Means to Seek fiqh al-aqalliyāt	287
6.7.1 – The Roles of Ijtihād (Legal Reasoning)	287
6.7.2 - The Use of Existing Fiqh
6.7.3 - Example of New Fiqh Approach in Contemporary Muslim Minority Context: Fatwa on Taking part in Fighting against Muslims by Faisal Mowlavi	290
6.8 – The Problems of Seeking Fiqh al-Aqalliyāt	299
7 Conclusion	304
Appendix I
UN’s Universal Declaration of Human Rights	313
Appendix II
Universal Islamic Declaration of Human Rights Prepared by Islamic Council – U.K - 1981	318
Bibliography	329